Jeff Mark is a Shareholder in the Health and Business Sections. Jeff has extensive experience advising hospitals, multi-institutional health care systems, physician groups and specialty providers regarding a variety of transactional health care related matters including affiliations, joint ventures, acquisitions and divestitures; fraud and abuse; Stark; physician agreements; and equipment and office space leasing arrangements.

In addition, Jeff represents clients in technology related transactions, with an emphasis on software and technology licensing, data privacy, cybersecurity, cloud computing, software as a service (SaaS) arrangements, and strategic alliances. Jeff also advises individuals, corporations, and partnerships regarding general corporate transactional matters including the negotiation and documentation of stock and asset-based transactions involving the merger, purchase or sale of operating divisions and stand-alone business entities; the selection and formation of business entities; transition planning, including buy and sell agreements, first rights of refusal and restrictions on the sale of equity interests; leasing and real estate transactions; and the negotiation and documentation of a variety of other contractual arrangements.

Jeff is named as a Client Service All-Star MVP by The BTI Consulting Group and was included on the Wisconsin Rising Stars list (2008, 2013-2016).

Jeff is a member of the American and Milwaukee Bar Associations, the State Bars of Wisconsin and Nebraska, and the American Health Lawyers Association.
