Aaron Foley focuses his practice on estate planning, probate and trust administration, business law, real estate and adult guardianship.

Aaron values community service and is a volunteer guardian through the Legal Aid Society of Milwaukee's GAIN project. The GAIN project connects cognitively disabled adults with a volunteer legal guardian to advocate for their care and well-being. He is the past President of the Board of Directors for Community Projects for Seniors, a nonprofit dedicated to improving the lives of older adults in Wisconsin by providing activities and meals to individuals living in low-income housing.

Aaron is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and the Milwaukee Bar Association.
