Rod Streicher represents a wide range of clients in litigation matters including tax assessment, commercial, municipal, employment, real estate and contract disputes. He safeguards the rights and interests of his clients by undertaking appropriate legal and other actions on their behalf. While doing so, he takes pride in his ability to present any complex legal concept and advice to his clients in a manner that is easily understandable.

Prior to joining the firm, Rod successfully handled hundreds of cases involving criminal defense, civil rights, and commercial litigation. This experience provides his clients with attention to detail, an abundance of trial experience, and a track record of success.

He is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin.
